

For Release: 23 April 2025

Chris Raciti appointed Country Head ANZ Singapore and Head of South East Asia, India and Middle East

ANZ today announced Chris Raciti has been appointed Country Head ANZ Singapore, with regional oversight for ANZ's businesses in eight markets across South East Asia, India and the Middle East.

Mr Raciti has held a number of senior leadership roles over his 20-year career at ANZ, including Country Head ANZ China, Country Head ANZ Korea, and Head of Loan Syndications and Specialised Finance for North Asia, based in Hong Kong.

Commenting on the appointment, ANZ Managing Director, International, Mr Simon Ireland, said: "I'm confident that Chris is the right person to lead our business in Singapore, a global financial hub and a vital part of the region's continued growth."

"His commitment to bringing the best of our network to customers, underpinned by a strong risk and regulatory foundations, will serve him well as he takes on this new leadership position."

"Chris is one of our most experienced bankers and leaders in the Asia-Pacific region. He is well-known for his ability to build highly engaged teams and drive growth and strategic opportunities for our business and customers."

"I'm particularly pleased that we were able to make this appointment internally, underscoring the breadth and depth of leadership we have across the region," Mr Ireland said.

Mr Raciti will commence in June, subject to the necessary regulatory and travel approvals.

For media enquiries contact:

Geraldine Lim

Communications Manager, Institutional

Tel: +65 8428 9157