REVIEW OF THE TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION (TMD)

ANZ will review the TMD periodically to ensure it remains appropriate.

Periodic Reviews of the TMD	Timing
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Initial review	<ul style="list-style-type: none">No later than 18 months from the date the TMD is made.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">Subsequent ongoing review	<ul style="list-style-type: none">No later than 18 months from the date of the previous review.

Review Triggers

In addition, ANZ will review this document earlier if one or more of the following occurs, where they reasonably suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate:

- There is a material change to the product or its distribution. For example, a change to a key product attribute or a material change to a distribution channel.
- There is a change in law or its application, a change in relevant industry code, an AFCA determination, a court decision, or ASIC or other regulatory guidance or action that materially affects the product. For example, if a change in the law requires ANZ to change or remove a key product attribute or a product intervention order is made by ASIC in respect of the product.
- There is a significant increase beyond expected levels in complaints or disputes, or a significant change in the nature of complaints or disputes relating to the product.
- ANZ has information about the way in which the product is being distributed, operating or being used by customers that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate. For example, ANZ will monitor:
 - number of accounts that customers opt to close or move to a different product shortly after the product is issued;
 - number of accounts where customers are carrying persistent credit card debt over an extended period;
 - number of accounts where customers are carrying a substantial balance frequently from month to month; and
 - number of accounts where customers are charged a higher annual fee but are not utilising the associated features.
- Material change to the ANZ Rewards program.
- Any other event occurs or information is received (for example, significant dealings in the product that are not consistent with the TMD) that reasonably suggests the TMD is no longer appropriate.
